

Yeovil Town Ladies Football Club - Fans Bill of rights – 2011/12 Season

On this, the nineteenth day of October in the year two thousand and eleven AD, Yeovil Town Ladies FC, declare that if thou cast your eyes upon a home match played by the Yeovil Town Ladies first team, the following rights are bestowed upon thee:

- The right to enjoy a South West Combination or cup game for just two pounds, or just one pound for children.
- The right of free parking for your horseless carriage subject unto height and other restrictions.
- The right to enjoy the game in a safe family environment, free of all wrongdoers.
- The right to purchase refreshments that doth not cost a King's Ransom.
- The right to a free 12 page colour programme, sponsored by Tamburino. Such programmes subject to availability.
- The right to see our players and officials comply with the spirit of the great and wise campaigns known throughout the realm as Respect and Let's Kick Racism out of Football.
- The right to meet the players in the lounge after the game, with such players being pleased to speak unto fans and bestow autographs irrespective of the result.
- If you are a traveller from afar (opposition fan, player or official) we covenant to welcome you as a friend.

Yeovil Town Ladies FC henceforth declares they will use their best endeavours to uphold this bill of rights.

Yeovil Town Ladies FC bestows praise upon the great and wise people of Yeovil Town Community Sports Trust, Yeovil Town FC, Sherborne Town FC, Tamburino and our main sponsors, the shopping emporium known as Quedam Shopping Centre, for they all doth provide manifest support unto the Club.

David Mills

David Mills
Chairman,
Yeovil Town Ladies FC
www.yeoviltownladies.com

Respect

QUEDAM
YEovil SHOPPING

